

ISRAEL PLANS ATTACK UPON BRITISH STAND

Scheduled Conference Touches Off Rumors Of Forthcoming Formal Protest

GRAVE CONCERN FELT

Lake Success, Jan. 11.—(P)—Israel was reported today to be preparing a new blast at Britain despite growing efforts of Washington and United Nations officials to ease the growing Palestine tension.

There still was no official word here whether or not Israel would abandon her plan to file a formal complaint in the Security Council against Britain on any of the several issues over which the two countries are arguing.

Israeli representative Aubrey S. Eban, however, arranged a news conference for 2 p. m. and this touched off rumors of a new attack on Britain was on the way.

These rumors were strengthened to some extent by a sharp statement issued by Eban last night on his arrival in New York after a round of conferences in Tel Aviv.

Eban declared British troop movements in Trans-Jordan constitute a "repudiation of the Security Council truce resolutions."

He said Britain's action is causing "grave concern" in Israel. Eban's statement was regarded as significant since it came after the State Department and U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie appealed to Britain and Israel to forget their differences for the moment in the interest of the forthcoming armistice talks on the island of Rhodes between Egypt and Israel.

Reports from Tel Aviv said yesterday that Eban would file a counter-complaint against Britain, but the Israeli delegation said last night the question still was under consideration.

Eban's news conference was expected to end just before the Security Council met at 3 p. m. on the Indonesian question.

SCRAP STEEL SUPPLY SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Pittsburgh, Jan. 11.—(P)—Scrap steel dealers serving district steel mills reported today that supplies are improving and prices are easier.

Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp. now is paying $41 a ton, a drop of $2 from the price at which melting scrap was stabilized during the last half of 1948.

The $43 price still is in effect for "industrial scrap"—metal returned by steel customers—which is better quality than the material now selling for $41.

Dealers reported the U. S. Steel Corp., Carnegie-Illinois' parent company, has stopped paying special "premiums" of up to $2.50 a ton over the market price to attract good quality scrap from the east and west seacoasts.

SLAYER SENTENCED

Pittsburgh, Jan. 11.—(P)—Clair J. Creese, 36-year-old handyman who pleaded guilty to slaying his employer, today began a life sentence in Western Penitentiary. The sentence was imposed yesterday by Judge Harry M. Montgomery. He fixed the degree of guilt and imposed sentence after Creese pleaded guilty to a general charge of murder in the death of Mrs. Margaret J. Truett. The shooting occurred last March 1 at the Truett home in Sewickley township. Creese testified he had been drinking.

SUES FOR $250,000

Pittsburgh, Jan. 11.—(P)—John G. Gruitz and his son, John G. Gruitz, Jr., of Sharon, were sued for $250,000 in Federal district court yesterday. The suit was filed by Mrs. Vesta Flower of Hubbard, O. She claims her husband, Robert, 54, died in March, 1948, from injuries sustained in a collision between his auto and a coal truck owned by the Sharon men, operators of the Riverside Coal and Builders Supplies Co. The accident occurred near Mercer.

Three Young Men Held For Alleged Burglary Of Home

Three young men were to be arraigned this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Tracy M. Greenlund on a burglary charge in connection with an alleged break-in at a Yankee Bush home last Friday night.

The trio was identified by Warren County Sheriff L. E. Linder and Pennsylvania State Police of the Warren substation as Arthur Knisley, 21, of Tionesta, and George Bush, 27, and Harold Kievar, 18, both of Ellipticville, N. Y.

Arrest of the trio climaxed a weekend of intensive investigation by police authorities, and is expected to clear up several other break-ins which have occurred recently in hunting camps and rural homes in Warren and Forest counties.

Sheriff Linder said that arraignment proceedings this afternoon will charge the trio with breaking into the home of Ellis M. Lindberg of Yankee Bush last Friday night, and taking equipment and household furnishings valued at $1,000, including a radio, two shotguns, two stoves, miscellaneous furniture

Consolidated Building To Replace Johnson And South Schools Under Consideration

A definite step toward erection of a new consolidated school building, which would ultimately replace existing Johnson and South street buildings and would be located on the present site of the Johnson structure, was taken at last night's meeting of the board of education, held at the high school building.

At its December session, the board passed a resolution and last night authorized presentation of a petition to the court for appointment of reviewers who would ascertain a fair price for the land involved in the proposed enlargement.

The board also instructed Superintendent John G. Rossman to contact the architects, Lawrie and Greene of Harrisburg, concerning immediate completion of plans for two additional units at the Home street building. Upon completion of these plans and their adoption, the school districts will advertise for bids for construction of the units.

A committee of three Bradford men, representing the Gideon Society, requested permission to distribute New Testaments to pupils in grades five and above. The board pointed out that the plan might be considered in grades nine through twelve for the weekday religious education program but it will not approve such distribution in the classrooms. It proposed, instead, that an arrangement might be made whereby the lower grades might call at some central point if pupils are interested in securing the volumes.

Dr. Carl Whipple, assistant superintendent of schools, reported on the evaluation of the elementary school program in the borough; his talks with High school and Beauty teachers on student response to a questionnaire sent out, and discussed briefly some of the matters taken up at the last meeting of the State PTA and Pennsylvania State Educational Association.

Miss Jean Spencer, of the high school faculty, was granted permission to serve as a member of the evaluating committee of Clarion schools on January 17-18.

Mrs. Gerda Lawrence was given permission to attend an art meeting to be held in Boston on April 6, 7 and 8.

A letter presented to the board asking if it would consider selling Russell Field or any part thereof was answered in the negative.

Permission was given the community PTA Council to continue use of Beauty school facilities on the first and third Saturdays of each month for its community youth parties, and the IOOF (Turn to Page Two)

MITCHUM CONVICTED IN NARCOTICS CASE

Los Angeles, Jan. 11.—(P)—Robert Mitchum stands convicted today of conspiring to possess marijuana. However, he may not go to prison.

Superior Judge Clement D. Nye returned the verdict after the trial had lasted 45 minutes yesterday. Defense Attorney Jerry Giesler agreed to trial without a jury, on a single count and solely on testimony before the grand jury which indicted the actor.

Mitchum, 31, dead-panned the proceedings and after conviction walked out, still at liberty on $1,000 bail.

With him went Actress Lila Leeds, 20, and real estate man Robin Ford, 31. They were arrested with Mitchum and Dancer Vickie Evans, 25, in a cottage last Sept. 1. Miss Leeds and Ford also were convicted. But Miss Evans wired the court she was stranded in New York without funds.

Chester Farmer Crowned As State's Champ Corn Grower

Harrisburg, Jan. 11.—(P)—A Chester county farmer was crowned at the state farm show today as Pennsylvania's champion corn grower.

The accolade went to Philip A. Hyatt, Kennett Square, who produced 174.5 bushels of shelled corn per acre last year. Hyatt was given a blue ribbon at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association held in conjunction with the 1949 farm show.

One other grower, Herman P. Hege, Chambersburg R. D., topped the 150 mark, producing 152.8 bushels for second place. The super yields compared with the general 46-bushel state average.

Meanwhile, another vast throng of visitors crowded the 4 acres of floor space of the state farm show building for the second day of the exposition. An estimated 95,000 showed up for the opening yesterday. Largest for the first day in the 33-year history of the Agrarian classic. The previous mark of 80,000 was set last year.

Gov. James H. Duff formally opened the exposition last night with a speech outlining Pennsylvania's agricultural accomplishments.

The governor took a salute afterwards from a squadron of Pennsylvania state police. The troopers offered an exhibition of trick horsemanship and dog training to the cheers of thousands.

Another capacity crowd of 7,800 was expected in the main arena tonight to witness the annual rural talent festival, "Susquehanna," with a cast of more than 800.

William R. Gordon, Pennsylvania State College extension rural sociologist, directs the festival which has a theme, early Pennsylvania history.

The 111-piece Pennsylvania Future Farmers of America band will provide the music for the show enhanced by a chorus of 90 voices.

SOME GROUPS MAY ESCAPE TAX INCREASE

General Agreement Among Leaders Someone Is Going to Have to Ante Up More Money

CONTROVERSY FLARES

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)—Low and middle salary groups appeared likely today to escape any general income tax boosts this year in spite of a record $41,858,000,000 peacetime budget.

But there was fairly general agreement in both Democratic and Republican ranks that if President Truman's spending program for the fiscal year starting July 1 is to be followed, someone is going to have to ante up more money.

Also, if his social welfare proposals are enacted millions of workers and their employers will have larger payroll taxes.

Republicans shouted for economy. They pointed to the spectre of a deficit formed by the budget the president sent to congress yesterday.

The Democratic heads of the senate and house tax-writing committees, Senator George of Georgia and Representative Doughton of North Carolina, maintained a cautious position. They said they want to see how much money congress votes to spend before considering tax raises.

As result, there is a strong possibility that the legislative budget provision of the congressional reorganization act will be suspended. This provision requires congress to set an estimate on appropriations and income by February 15 each year.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo.), who will head the house appropriations committee, said he will ask the committee to take the initiative to suspend the budget ceiling requirement.

The president himself estimated the deficit for the year at $873,000,000 but he has proposed that it be wiped out and some cash be provided for national debt by hiking tax rates.

Rep. Taber (R-NY), appropriations chairman in the 80th congress, said the budget will have to be "cut down to earth."

In line with the president's recent recommendation that most of the requested $4,000,000,000 tax increase come from corporations and perhaps from higher income groups, Rep. Eberhart (D-Pa.), coming up with a tax plan, said he believes increases should be aimed at corporations and persons whose incomes are $16,000 a year or more.

Some Republicans joined with Democrats in approving the president's request to expand social security insurance by hiking from one to one and one-half per cent next July 1 the Old Age Insurance payroll tax on workers and adding 20,000,000 people to the 30,000,000 now covered. There was less support for his proposed health insurance program—to be financed the first year by a payroll tax of one-fourth of one per cent on employees and the same amount on employers.

Youth Will Be Prosecuted As An Adult

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—(P)—Seymour Levin, 16, disheveled and looking bewildered, today was held without bail charged with the scissors-slashing of 12-year-old Ellis Simons.

Levin was arraigned in the juvenile division of the municipal court at the same hour that funeral services were being intended for the young victim of what police call the most brutal killing in city history.

Respectable and wearing a sports jacket and unpressed plaid trousers, young Levin started to speak but his attorney, James Dessen, silenced him. No plea was entered. Dessen said he wanted to have his client examined by a psychiatrist first.

Levin's lawyer described the defendant as "a very confused sort of little boy."

Levin, who will be 17 on Jan. 24, was scheduled to be arraigned on a homicide charge in municipal court today at exactly the same hour funeral services were to be held for the Simons boy.

District Attorney John H. Maurer yesterday assigned the Levin prosecution to assist District Attorney Colbert C. McClain, considered murder trial lawyer.

At the same time, Maurer announced the trial would be held in quarter sessions court because of the nature of the crime. Offenders under 18 years of age usually are tried in the municipal court's juvenile division.

'Sunny' California Has a Blow

Overcoats with turned-up collars, like the above, were in order in Los Angeles, as one of the heaviest snowstorms in its recorded history swept the southern California area. The weatherman didn't help, either, with forecasts of sub-freezing temperatures and continued snow flurries.

Snow, Ice and Sleet Storms Hit Most of Area From The Panhandle to Pacific Coast

The worst snow in southern California history came today as the latest staggering blow in winter's drubbing of the western half of the nation.

Los Angeles and several of its suburbs measured an incredible six-inch white blanket. And Pasadena's Colorado Boulevard, scene two weeks ago of the Tournament of Roses floral parade, was carpeted with more than two inches of snow.

The scene was an Arctic contrast to the sunny, summery weather of the southeast where Birmingham, Ala., had 82 degrees heat. But a wide expanse of the country had severe weather conditions.

Snow, ice and sleet storms hit an area from the Texas-Oklahoma Panhandle to the Pacific coast.

California shivered again in freezing temperatures. There "was snow and ice from the state's winter resort spots to the mountains. Many highways were closed because of ice and snow. The fruit and vegetable crop was further endangered by the wintry blasts. The freezing weather followed last week's killing frost which caused millions of dollars of damage to crops.

The Rocky mountain region and parts of the midwest got another blast of sub-zero temperatures. Cold weather in the Pacific northwest threatened a severe power shortage.

While winter's icy blasts dealt severe blows to the west, Dixieland was basking in summertime temperatures. The mercury shot up into the 70's and 80's yesterday from Louisiana to the Atlantic seaboard and from Florida to east Tennessee and most of Virginia.

The freezing rain and sleet covered an extensive area of the central and southern plains as far eastward as Iowa, Missouri and western Illinois.

Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and part of northern Texas got the worst of the storm.

In California highway crews worked through the night sanding icy roads and clearing snow. Only one main highway out of Los Angeles, coast route 101 to San Francisco and San Diego, was free of ice.

The mercury slid to freezing and below in many parts of California again today. Snow fell in Burbank and for the second straight night there were snow flurries in Los Angeles. There was a blanket of white in many San Fernando valley and foothill communities.

More snow fell over most of Nebraska and South Dakota and spread into northern Iowa and southern Minnesota. Snow also was reported in the central Rockies.

The new falls in some parts of Nebraska and South Dakota came as some communities remained snowbound from last week's heavy snowfalls. Gordon, Neb., a town of 2,000 population, has been isolated for eight days with all roads blocked by huge drifts. A state of emergency was declared as baby food, canned milk and fuel supplies dwindled.

Tinton, S. B. snowbound community in the Black Hills, was reported short on food. Volunteers pulling toboggans were to start to take supplies to the town of 35 population after planes failed to land.

MILITARY PICTURE DARKENS AS GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SPEED FLIGHT FROM NANKING

Nanking, Jan. 11.—(P)—Official sources today indicated the Reds either have occupied the great northern industrial city of Tientsin or that terms have been agreed on for its surrender.

These sources conceded that "Tientsin is gone." They declined, however, to furnish details.

The northern city has been under heavy attack for several days. Last previous reports here said Red troops were fighting in Tientsin's suburbs.

On the central front, Communist troops were reported systematically mopping up the trapped government armies on the northern approaches to Nanking. Government airmen called it the heaviest fighting we have seen at any time in China.

With the military picture darkening, government officials stepped up their flight from Nanking. Little more than a symbol of mains in Nanking. Officials, archives and equipment are flowing out of the capital at a fast pace.

Thousands of officials and employees have left. Many have moved south to set up emergency branches of their ministries out of reach of Red armies. Others have fled to their native homes where they hope to find obscurity.

Technically all ministries are still in Nanking. That's because the great seals with which all official papers must be stamped are still here. But actually, few government functions continue, except the most urgent.

One official estimated more than half the National government's personnel has disappeared from Nanking. The ministry of health will move en masse tomorrow to Canton in southern China.

Canton and Formosa (Taiwan) are favorite refuges of government officials. As many as 50,000 Chinese a week are reported arriving on Formosa, which some say Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek may turn into an island fortress.

Rumor continued to flow from every direction. One government official cautioned, "it's no use talking about peace until we know what the Communists want. And they are not saying."

Communists are doing their talking with guns on the approaches to Nanking and in the northern city of Tientsin.

The heaviest fighting was 150 miles northwest of the capitol. Encircled government forces there comprise the remnants of the former Suchoy garrison under command of Gen. Tu Li-Ming.

A Communist broadcast yesterday said the Nationalist force had been "completely wiped out" as a fighting force. The encircled troops, originally numbering 250,000 men, had been cut to 30,000 by Communist estimate Sunday.

The government Air Force had been parachuting supplies to the encircled troops. But pilots reported survivors were so tightly packed into a narrowing area that they asked the airmen to call off the air lift.

In Shanghai Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault, retired, wartime leader of the "Flying Tigers," said he was willing to lead a new American volunteer group for the Chinese government.

In an interview, Chennault said he had informed President Chiang Kai-Shek that veterans of the U. S. 14th airforce which fought in China during the second World War had volunteered to fight again. Chiang has not replied, Chennault said.

Bill Granting Pay Hikes To Top Officials Is Considered

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)—A bill raising the pay of the president and vice president is headed for senate approval Thursday.

The senate Civil Service Committee called a closed-door meeting today to consider the measure—which would also boost the salaries of other top officials.

Without mentioning his own pay, President Truman yesterday urged speed in raising the income of high government executives.

He wrote Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) the senate's president pro tempore, that business is outbidding the government for "able men."

But while senate Republicans decided at a policy conference yesterday that they would not oppose increasing the salary of the president and the vice president, Chairman Taft (Ohio) said objections were raised to quick action on other pay raises.

The bill under consideration would boost the president's $75,000 salary to $100,000 and give him an additional tax-exempt expense allowance of $50,000.

The pay of the vice president and the speaker would be raised to $30,000, and each would receive $10,000 expense allowances. They now get a salary of $20,000. The speaker has a $2,500 expense allowance; the vice president receives none.

In addition, the measure would boost the salaries of 222 other top officials and give raises of $330 a year to 13,500 federal employees passed over in a general pay increase bill last year.

Overall annual cost of the pay hikes would be $6,207,000. (Turn to Page Two)

Forrestal To Continue As Defense Head

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)—James V. Forrestal said after a talk with President Truman today that he expects to stay on as secretary of defense.

Forrestal told White House reporters he expects to submit his resignation soon as a matter of routine, but that he does not expect it to be accepted.

He added, in response to questions, that he wants to continue in his cabinet post and expects to do so.

Forrestal said he talked with the President about proposed changes in the Security Act.

He said the problem will be dealt with in a message Mr. Truman will send to Congress. "In the next two or three weeks."

Forrestal said the question of a 70-group Air Force was not discussed in his conference with Mr. Truman.

Then reporters put the question which has been much discussed in Washington for weeks: "Have you submitted your resignation?"

Forrestal said he had not, but that he would submit one "as a matter of routine" in advance of Mr. Truman's inauguration January 20. He said the resignation which the President has always had, subject to acceptance at will, "needs to be refurbished."

"Do you anticipate its acceptance?"

"No," he replied. "I expect to be a victim of the Washington scene."

Then reporters asked if that meant he "wants to and expects to continue as defense secretary?"

He replied in the affirmative.

G. O. P. Committee Rolls Up a Deficit

Washington, Jan. 11.—(P)—The Republican national committee rolled up a deficit of $228,938 during 1948.

Its year-end financial report, on file today with congress, showed a total income of $2,507,396 with expenses totalling $2,736,334.

The report did not say how much the Republicans had on hand at the beginning of the year, or how much—if any—was left in the bank when the year ended.

The report from the Democratic national committee last week did. It showed $315,367 in the bank when the year started, and $180,914 left December 31.

The two reports showed the GOP committee a little ahead of the Democrats on both collections and spending during 1948. The Democrats took in $2,308,211, and shelled out $2,127,286 from national party headquarters.

Large chunks of the Republican committee's income near the end of the year was from state and local party committees.

Chapman Again Named Head of Appropriations Committee

State Senator L. E. Chapman, of Warren, one of the senior members of the State Senate from the point of service, has drawn an important assignment as chairman of the Senate's powerful appropriations committee for the 1949 session of the Legislature, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg.

Dr. Chapman also was named a member of six other standing committees including constitutional changes and federal relations, elections, highways, labor and industry, law and order, and public health and welfare.

Dr. Chapman was elected to the State Senate from Warren and Venango counties in 1930 and has served continuously since then. Prior to 1930, he served two terms as school director in Warren borough, two terms as coroner of Warren county, and two terms as burrass of Warren. He is a native of Warren, attended Pennsylvania State College and graduated in medicine from Ohio State University. He is a staunch Republican and has been one of the active party leaders in the district for many years.

The standing committee appointments also listed a former Warren man, Senator James S. Berger of Coudersport, as chairman of the labor and industry committee and a member of five other committees, including education, forests and waters, judiciary general, mines and mining, and public health and welfare.

Senator Berger was born in Warren, the son of the late Clarence A. Berger, and attended Kenyon College and Dickinson Law School. He is an attorney-at-law, and opened a practice in Coudersport where he rose to a prominent position in Potter county politics. He was elected to the Senate in 1944.

Want a Greenhouse? Here's Next Best at Low Cost

Many of the advantages of a small greenhouse, at a fraction of its cost, may be enjoyed by the amateur gardener who equips his cold frame with an electric heating cable. Cables and thermostats are now obtainable at less than the cost to a townsman of suitable manure, were he able to find it.

Current used for heating depends upon the insulation of the frame, and how early in the spring heat is turned on, but it seldom adds an important amount to the light bill. Advantages are many. There is a much more even heat, which is beneficial to all plants and vital to those that chill easily. It gives a longer growing period, since the heat does not become exhausted, as does heat from manure, which sometimes fails before the outside temperature is safe.

A frame is constructed in the usual pattern as used for both hot-beds and cold frames, but there is no need to prepare a deep bed such as is necessary when manure is used to supply heat.

The frame is sunk in the ground about six inches. Soil is removed within it to an equal depth, and the cable is arranged on the bottom in loops, so that heat will be evenly distributed. The supply wire and cable are, both connected to a thermostat, which can be set at the desired minimum temperature, so that as soon as the thermometer falls to that point heat is turned on.

When temperature rises a few degrees above the minimum, heat is shut off, and the variation between maximum and minimum temperatures is much less than with the old fashioned hot-bed.

The heating cable is usually covered with four to six inches of soil. It is a good idea to place a sheet of fine meshed poultry wire an inch above the cable, with soil between. Another method is to grow plants in flats, which are placed on a grating just above the heating cable, which is not buried in soil, and thus is always open to inspection. To improve insulation and reduce current consumption, the frame should be banked with cinders, which are covered with soil, to within a few inches of the top.

France Is Having Epidemic Of Flu

Paris, Jan. 11—(AP)—An epidemic of influenza is spreading through France and threatening other countries in western Europe. Unlike the "Spanish flu" in 1918, when the death toll ran into the thousands, the present flu epidemic has so far claimed only about two deaths per 1,000 cases, a government medical source said. The current epidemic is being referred to as "Italian flu." It struck first in Italy and spread into France.

In Britain, the ministry of health said it was concerned over the danger of the epidemic spreading across the Channel, but so far there were no signs of widespread sickness.

Consolidated Building To Replace Johnson And South Schools

Lodge was granted use of the high school auditorium for an April 30th program in celebration of the 100th anniversary of its founding in this community.

The board adopted a policy concerning teacher visiting, and re-stated its policy on retirement earned out for the past few years. Under this plan, all teachers reaching the age of 62 years have their contracts automatically terminated, but, since some who have already reached this age limit are of great value to the school district, they may request examination and upon satisfactory passing the tests given by three physicians may have their contracts continued for a period of one year. They may, at the end of that year, request further examination and continuation.

Receipts acknowledged from the state included $2,932.99 for the lunch program for October and November and for the health program, the amount of $883.90 covering the same period.

Reports presented showed a gross income of $5,679.21 for the cafeteria department in the first 15 days of December, when 8,529 lunches were served at Beatty building and the high school and 12,468 half-pints of milk were sold. Current bills approved included $5,628.84 from general funds and $2,934.25 from the activities accounts.

Also approved by the board members were contracts with Ludwig Peterson in the amount of $185 for additional shelving in the high school library; with Beckley, Inc., amounting to $75 for lighting fixtures in the high school auditorium; and with Neal and Company for installation of a heater in the machine tool shop at South street building, in the sum of $332.33.

Major Bills Will Receive Quick Action

manhood or the nurse labor committee, said President Truman will get by the end of February:

1. Kept in the state of emergency law, wrapped up in complete new labor measure restoring most of the New Deal's Wagner act.
2. A boost in the national minimum wage to 75 cents an hour from its present 40.
3. A federal aid-to-education program authorizing money to build schools, and to pay teachers in some impoverished districts.

Lesinski, a Michigan building contractor, as a veteran of 10 years in congress and has been a stout New Deal supporter all those years. He made his predictions in the light of a long conference yesterday with Mr. Truman. Lesinski took with him Reps. Kelley of Pennsylvania and Kennedy of Massachusetts, both labor committee Democrats.

The Democrats have lined up the labor committee for swift action. Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) announced yesterday majority leaders have decided on a ratio of 16 Democrats to nine Republicans on the committee, instead of last year's 15 to 10 margin for the Republicans, who then controlled congress.

Rail Service To Buffalo To Be Curtailed

Titusville Herald: Titusville will still have a morning and evening passenger train, but after some time in February the train will not run between Corry and Buffalo, covering only the 45-mile stretch between Oil City and Corry.

This news was broken to a joint meeting of the directors of the Titusville Chamber of Commerce and the board of the Chamber's Retail Bureau at a luncheon session yesterday at the Colonel Drake Hotel.

The board discussed the matter and then passed a resolution, introduced by Attorney Edward J. McDonald, that the local Chamber get in touch with secretaries of other chambers of commerce and borough representatives along the route of the train, with a view to making an organized protest to the interstate Commerce Commission.

Lessor Levy, Chamber president, said that a Pennsylvania Railroad representative had assured him that the New York Pullman will continue to be transported between Corry and Oil City and that mail will still be handled over this route.

These two points are sensitive spots in Titusville. The New York connection is depended upon by business men, fair weather or foul, and much important mail between Oil Region points and Philadelphia and New York is carried on the train.

But despite the fact that Titusville will continue to receive the services it values most highly, Chamber directors urged that a strong protest be made lest the Pennsylvania Railroad think this community has become indifferent to its rail service.

Erie Area Paying Out Large Sums In Pension Benefits

Monthly Old-Age and Survivors Insurance benefits at the rate of almost $2,000,000 annually were being paid in the Erie area at the end of 1948, it was announced by Bernard A. Farabaugh, Manager of the Erie office of the Social Security Administration.

This is an all-time "high" for the old-age survivors insurance program, representing an increase of about 20% over 1947, Farabaugh stated.

A year-end summary by the Erie Social Security Office shows that about 7,100 persons are now receiving monthly payments under the Federal social security program at an average monthly rate of $148.50. The service area of the Erie office includes Erie, Crawford and Warren counties.

Throughout the nation about 2,300,000 persons are now receiving payments at an average monthly rate of almost 46 million dollars.

Under the Social Security Act monthly insurance payments are made to qualified retired workers in commerce and industry, and wives and minor children of retired workers, as well as to survivors of deceased workers. The social security year-end statement shows that monthly retirement payments totaled about $366,000,000 in 1948 to survivors (children, widows and young children in their care, aged widows and parents) amounted to approximately $177,000,000. An additional 32 million dollars was paid in lump-sums to survivors of insured workers who were not immediately eligible for monthly payments.

Old-age and survivors insurance is primarily a family insurance program, Mr. Farabaugh said, pointing to the fact that locally, as well as for the nation as a whole, 3 of every 5 beneficiaries are women and children.

Approximately 13,200,000 wage and salary earners now have lifetime protection for themselves and their families under old-age and survivors insurance through completion of a required number of years work in social security jobs.

About 18,700,000 living persons had some wages credited toward future social security benefits at the end of 1948. During 1948 some 30,000,000 persons received wages in covered employments.

The Social Security Administration believes that on the basis of experience during the past twelve years it is feasible to extend social security coverage to employments now excluded, such as farm work and domestic service in private homes, as well as to self-employed persons, said Mr. Farabaugh.

In Warren county 711 retired workers and their wives receive $15,208 monthly; 163 widows receive $3,304; 198 children, $2,524; four others received $50, making a total of 1,076 who received $21,212.

Relief Board Reelects Its Entire Slate

At the January meeting of the Warren Relief Association, held at the YWCA activities building, last year's entire slate of officers was reelected.

Mrs. J. W. A. Luce will continue as president, with Mrs. Paul Stewart as vice president. Mrs. H. A. Rindard remains as secretary, Mrs. Mary Wood as treasurer, and Mrs. W. E. Rice as publicity director.

Figures for 1948 showed that the Warren Relief had given 1188 garments to 167 destitute persons and that 12,700 quarts of milk had been supplied to needy families. Several private donations were gratefully acknowledged and plans for the new year discussed.

The members of the board welcomed several new, volunteer members. Mrs. Dean A. Anderson, Mrs. Robert B. Bloom, Mrs. Palmer Davis and Mrs. Richard C. Smith.

It is hoped that the Association will be able to continue its helpful support through this coming year.

West Hickory Has Twelfth Night Plans

West Hickory, Jan. 11—Local and vicinity Girl Scouts are busy with plans for their Twelfth Night program to be held at the baseball diamond on Thursday evening.

The court members were named through tokens baked in a cake, in which was cut by the Scout leader, Mrs. Hazel Kline.

The queen will be Dolores Kinnear; the king, Mary Ellen Cook; queen's train bearers, Grace Emick and Sandra Licastro; crown bearers, Beulah Anthony and Wilma May Nuttall; court jester, Ruth Ann Emick; members of the court, Martha Lewis, Norma Johnson, Phyllis Vanderwort, Mary Jane Andrews, Jane Williams, Roberta Andrews, Betty Anthony, Sarah Jane Anthony, Ethel Andrews, Judy Hunter, Arline Barnes and Nancy Johnson.

The court will form a procession at the church and, as the bell rings at seven o'clock, will march to the baseball diamond while the Girl Scouts sing Christmas carols.

There is no admission for the program and it is hoped a big crowd will turn out in support of the project. It is expected that car lights will be used to ring the diamond, since there are no street lights.

A silent plea goes to the weather men: for a fair evening, since the ball grounds have been under three feet or more of drifted snow, now rapidly melting.

MORE ABOUT TAXES

The question of more taxes, and how the program will affect the individual taxpayer, in the opinion of James Marlow, Associated Press feature writer in Washington, probably hits closer home with most people than anything else in President Truman's budget message.

Mr. Truman is talking about two kinds of taxes:

1. He wants a straight-out tax increase of $4 billion. This he wants mostly from the profits of corporations and—maybe—from the income of individuals in the upper and middle income brackets.

2. He wants Social Security tax raised and he wants Congress to create a health insurance plan, which would call for a brand new tax.

The Social Security tax now is paid by employers and employees; and the health insurance tax would come out of your pay check, too.

How much would all this come to as a tax increase on business and the public? About $6 billion altogether the first year—$4 billion under number one above and about $2 billion under number two.

Take the $4 billion tax raise first—

To stay out of the red, the government must collect in taxes as much money as it pays out in expenses.

But in the fiscal year beginning July 1—so Mr. Truman says—the government should spend $42 billion, or $1 billion more than it expects to collect in taxes.

Avoiding that debt is one of his reasons for wanting the $4 billion tax increase. But he has another reason.

The government debt—built up tremendously when the government had to borrow money to run the war—is running around $252 billion.

That's why Mr. Truman is asking for that $4 billion: To keep the country from going further into debt and to help pay off some of the present debt. But what about the Social Security and health insurance tax?

The government can't use that money for paying its expenses or paying off debt. That money goes into a trust, or set-aside, fund.

Right now employers and employees are each paying one per cent of the payroll money: one per cent by the employer on his payroll, and one per cent by the employee on his pay. Mr. Truman wants this raised this year to 1½ per cent each.

At the same time he wants 25 million people not now covered by Social Security brought within its protection.

As for a tax for a health insurance program, top officials say this would bring in about $300,000,000 in new taxes the first year and would add another one-half of one per cent tax on payrolls.

Here And There

This And That: Inauguration of President Truman will provide a three-hour broadcast. The television allotment will be somewhat longer. The radio networks, beginning to line up for January 20, expect to go on the air around 11:30 a. m., and continue until 1:30 p. m., perhaps later in some instances. To cover the main events, these will comprise description of the parade, swearing in ceremonies, the inaugural address and other activities. It will be the seventh inauguration to be broadcast but the first to be telecast. . . . Harold Miller, professional stenographer of Meadville, who assisted as court reporter in No. 2 court room there last week when Judge Allison D. Wade, of Warren, presided, experimented with a "Sound-scriber" disk recorder as he also took down testimony by stenotype. On several occasions he played back actual voices when counsel or court requested it for reference to questioning. The microphone for the recorder is placed near the witness stand, the Timesville Herald says. . . . When the Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train from Erie to Philadelphia reached Corry Sunday evening, the train was met by a crowd of admirers and Old City passengers for the east, who had gone up on the evening train, learned that the cafe coach (diner) had broken down and been taken off. The railroad company then reverted to the ancient custom of holding the train for hungry passengers to disembark and get a bite to eat.

One of the most lasting memorials which has ever been accorded a teacher was created at a meeting of the Warren school board, in the naming of the fourth ward school building in memory of Mrs. Blanche King-McClintock, who had been principal of the school. She had been tireless in her efforts and had been a "mother" to the pupils of the school. Her work with the foreign born was especially commendable for she was the guiding hand in teaching many of them the methods of living in this country. . . . The Bartsch Furniture store was the scene of a fire to the extent of $8000 which was partly covered by insurance. The blaze was confined to the basement but there was smoke and water damage on the first floor. Mayor Samuel A. Carlson, former mayor of Jamestown, is to be the principal speaker at the mass meeting to be held at the court house for the purpose of learning public sentiment in regard to disposition of the fair grounds property of the Warren County Agricultural Association. Dr. House, who has been giving a series of lectures at the First Presbyterian church has been drawing ever increasing audiences, in spite of the weather.

National Girl Scout Worker To Visit Local Council And Speak at Meeting

Mrs. Leotta Caldwell Hawthorne, national coordinator and community adviser for Girl Scouts in Region III, which includes Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, will visit Warren on January 13, and will speak at the meeting of the local council on Friday morning.

While in Warren, Mrs. Hawthorne will be guest speaker for the annual meeting on January 13, at the YWCA. "Belonging" will be the theme for her talk. She will conduct a conference for troop members on Friday morning and again in the afternoon.

Mrs. Hawthorne came to Girl Scout from the field of education, where she has had a wide experience in teaching children, supervising and supervising adults, and in writing curricula.

She says that her interest in Girl Scout was first aroused when she was casting about for a program to help solve some of the recreational problems of a group of girls about whom she was concerned. She became the leader of a Girl Scout troop for these children and later served as a council member, a volunteer trainer, and in many other volunteer capacities.

Mrs. Hawthorne believes that training is a key to good Girl Scout. She is keenly interested in the recruitment, the training and use of volunteer trainers and spends considerable time helping councils put good training plans into action.

Her particular responsibility in Region III is the coordination of the regional training program. She also works in a supervisory relationship with many professional workers and serves as an adviser to the councils in Western Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Hawthorne is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, has served on the summer faculties of Pennsylvania State College and Geneva College, and has served on educational committees at both the state and national levels. She is a seasoned member of the Edith Macy Training School staff, where she has given courses to Girl Scout volunteers and professional workers.

Change in Vick Slogan Gives Cheerful Picture

A cheerful picture of America's market potential has been drawn by Vick Chemical Co., makers of Vicks VapoRub, Vapo-Trol nose drops, Inhaler and Medicated Cough Drops. The firm's well-known "mark-out" slogan, indicating Vick progress since a beginning in 1905, and a sale of 17 million packages in 1917, has recently been changed for the fourth time.

The new slogan shows a record figure of "Over 117 Million Vick Packages Used Yearly." The old records were 26, 53 and 94 millions.

This steady growth through wars and depressions is due, Vick Board Chairman, L. Richardson says, to concentration of quality, and ever-increasing consumer acceptance of Vick products for relieving the miseries of colds. Since the company's inception, newspaper advertising has been used constantly.

Vick Chemical was founded by Linsford Richardson in Greensboro, N. C. in 1905. The firm's laboratory was in his drugstore, where writer O. Henry once worked. Vick now has two manufacturing laboratories in the United States, and twelve more in as many foreign countries.

Race Issue Costs Athlete A.A.U. Award

Cleveland, Jan. 11.—(P)—A veteran Amateur Athletic Union official claimed today that Harrison Dillard, negro dash and hurdle star, missed out on the James E. Sullivan award in 1948 because his color cost him southern votes.

Jimmy Lee, a national executive committee member of the A.A.U. and its northeastern Ohio secretary-treasurer for many years, declared:

"It seems obvious to me that Dillard faced badly in the south because of his color."

Dillard, a star of the 1943 Olympics in London and a June graduate at nearby Baldwin Wallace College, finished fourth in Sullivan award balloting by Amateur Athletic Union officials and sports writers. He was second choice in 1946 and 1947.

Bob Mathias, 17-year-old Olympic decathlon champion, won the Sullivan trophy last year with 228 points. Second and third were two basketball players—Bob Kurland, who played on the Olympic team, and Allene Banks Sprouse of Atlanta, nine times All-America in the women's national A.A.U. championships. Kurland polled 148 and Mrs. Sprouse 106.

New Process Cagers Edge School Five In Overtime Rockets Whip Am. Legion

Spine-tingling action highlighted the YMCA City League action on the Y floor last night with the New Process five requiring two extra periods before it could gain a 39-38 triumph over the Warren Business School.

In a second league scrap, the Rockets overpowered the strong American Legion squad.

Phil Colosimo swished the cords for 17 points to set the pace for the New Processers, while Dan Doherty collected 11 of the Business School's points. The N. P. C. squad trailed at halftime, 18 to 16, took the lead in the third stanza, but lost it again as the School team drew alongside at the end of the regulation playing time. Each squad collected three points in the first overtime, while in the second extra "sudden death" frame, Phil N. P. C.ers sunk a foul and a basket to win.

Scoring honors in a second scrap were shared by Ralph Fischer—the Rockets and Ken Christensen of the Legion, each with 10 points.

Mangrum Is Easy Winner In L. A. Open

Los Angeles, Jan. 11.—(P)—Lloyd Mangrum, using all the old tricks and a new one—following the opposition by radio—is off to a flying start in golf's gold rush of '49.

"I was listening to the others on the radio," said the dapper Chicagoan at the finish of the $15,000 Los Angeles Open. "When I heard Dutch had 287, I knew I could coast in with pars."

That's just what he did—except for a birdie two on the short 16th. Mangrum finished three strokes ahead of E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark. Mangrum's 72-hole total of 184—scored under adverse weather conditions—just equaled par.

Eight strokes back was the defending and National Open Champion, Ben Hogan of Fort Worth.

Mangrum outdistanced three opponents who started even with him yesterday, and breezed in with a one-under-par 70 just before flakes of snow started to blow across Riviera's treacherous fairways to take the $2,600 first prize.

Obituary

Unless otherwise stated, visiting hours at Warren's funeral home are from 10 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

V. G. NEWELL
Fort Pierce, (Fla.) News-Tribune: Vincent Guard Newell, 70, died at his Fort Pierce home early January first. Though he had been in ill health for some time, his death was unexpected. Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Andrew's Episcopal church by the Rev. Samuel C. W. Fleming, rector. Yates Funeral Home is in charge and interment will be in the family plot in the Fort Pierce cemetery.

The deceased was one of the oldest druggists in this community. He was born in Oil City, Pa., and came here from Warren, Pa., in 1919. He engaged in his profession for a number of years, at one time operated the Fort Capron hotel and was a citrus grower. At the time of his death he was retired.

He was a member of Trinity Memorial Episcopal church of Warren, belonged to the various Masonic orders including Zem Zem Shrine temple at Erie, Pa.

A veteran of the Spanish American War, he served in the major battles both in Cuba and Puerto Rico, including the battle of San Juan hill. He was a member of the Clifford R. Ford post, Spanish American War Veterans and the Eugene V. Lish post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, having assisted in organizing the latter. Survivors include two sons, Vincent G. Newell, Jr., of Orlando, and Winston John Newell of this city; four sisters-in-law, Mrs. Anna Brooks, Mrs. Mary Riter, Mrs. Nanna Crowl and Mrs. Jeannette Ripley, all of Erie, Pa. who were here at the time of his demise, having come for the holiday season.

ALBERT R. ZIMMERMAN
Services in memory of Albert R. Zimmerman, well known resident of Zimmerman Hill, were held at the Lutz Funeral Home at two o'clock Monday afternoon conducted by Dr. H. A. Renard. Interment followed in Oakland cemetery, with the following serving as bearers: Louis Mathis, Francis Frey, Charles George, Merle Hart, Alfred Leuthold and Joe Sullivan.

DR. M. H. CHRISTIE
Word has been received that Dr. M. H. Christie, former well-known and highly respected physician of Columbus and Corry, had died at the home of his son, Dr. Arthur Christie of Gaithersburg, Md., a suburb of Washington, D. C.

Dr. Christie died Sunday afternoon at the age of 90. He was born in Butler county on March 7, 1858.

For many years Dr. Christie practiced medicine at Columbus and then went to Corry where he maintained an active practice. Mrs. Christie died in 1918 and in 1919 Dr. Christie retired from his profession and went to Washington, D. C., to make his home.

Dr. Christie was an ardent sportsman and especially enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was a member of the Columbus Masonic Lodge No. 264, later transferring membership to the Corry Lodge No. 365, and was also a member of the Columbus Royal Arch Chapter No. 200 and the Clarence Commandery No. 51.

Surviving are three sons, Dr. Arthur Christie, mentioned above, who formerly practiced medicine at Clymer; Dr. L. M. Christie of Silver Springs, Md., former practicing dentist in Corry, and Attorney Clare Christie of Washington, D. C.; nine grandchildren; and 14 great grandchildren.

The body arrived in Corry this morning and was removed to the Bracken-Keating funeral home where friends may call. Services will be held there Wednesday morning at ten o'clock with interment to follow in the family lot at the Pine Grove cemetery in Corry.

BERT L. GROSS
Bert L. Gross, well known local resident who lived at 500 Market street, died there about 9:30 a. m. today. Removal has been made to the Lutz Funeral Home and arrangements for services in his memory will be announced later.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbors whose heroic and diligent efforts saved our home which was so seriously threatened by recent fire which destroyed the residence of our neighbor, James Snyder. We are especially indebted to Mrs. Burgess, our faithful telephone operator, whose distress calls received such prompt response by the people of the community; also the various donors of fire fighting equipment. We shall not soon forget the kindness and thoughtful consideration shown us throughout this trying experience.

Four Indicted, In Basketball "Fix" Charge

New York, Jan. 11—(AP)—Four men were indicted yesterday on charges of attempting to bribe a player to "fix" college basketball games.

A New York county (Manhattan) grand jury indicted all four defendants, and a federal grand jury in Washington, D. C., indicted three of them.

The accused—all free in bail of $20,000 each—are Jack Levy, 40, of Miami, Fla.; William Flynn, 43; Joseph Aronowitz, 35, of Philadelphia; and Phil Klein, 34. The last three are from New York.

They have denied the charges since their arrest here last Tuesday night. They were accused by David Shapiro of New York, co-captain of the basketball team of George Washington University, Washington, of offering him a $10,000 bribe to throw a game at Madison Square Garden last night.

The Washington indictments named Levy, Aronowitz and Klein. Assistant U. S. Attorney John W. Finnelly said the indictments were based on offers allegedly made to Shapiro last month in a Washington hotel. If convicted the defendants would be liable to a maximum of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Conviction on the New York indictments could bring imprisonment from one to five years and a fine up to $10,000.

Youngsville Citizen Found Dead In Home

John Ribicki, North Main street, well known Youngsville man, was found dead at his home by neighbors about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was 66 years of age and has no known relatives.

According to facts brought to light in an investigation by Coroner Ed C. Lowrey, Mr. Ribicki worked yesterday morning as usual but complained of feeling ill around noon. He visited Dr. R. H. Knapp shortly after noon, and Dr. Knapp told Coroner Lowrey that he did not consider Mr. Ribicki's condition serious at the time.

Mr. Ribicki then returned to his home where he laid down to rest. About 5:30 o'clock, two neighbors, Jack Phil and John Mazurek, went to the home to visit him and found him fully dressed except for his shoes, and apparently deceased. Dr. Knapp was called and pronounced him dead, and Coroner Lowrey was notified. He stated this morning that he will issue a certificate of death from natural causes.

Mr. Ribicki was born in Poland on October 23, 1882, coming to Cleveland in 1907, and then to Youngsville about 20 years ago where he has been employed at the brick yard ever since.

Services in his memory are in charge of the Young Funeral Home and will be held from there on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock with interment to follow in Youngsville cemetery.

The California parakeet, which once ranged as far north as Wisconsin, now is restricted to Florida and is almost extinct.

Brokenstraw Grange Plans Installation

Youngsville, Jan. 11—Brokenstraw Grange is installing officers this evening and would like also to have a good size crowd on hand for the Evening of Music which is to take place on January 20, at 8 p. m., in the high school auditorium. The program, a Barber Shop Quartet Revue, will feature the Harmony Kings, The For Fun Four, Four Notes, Symphonic Four and Elmer the Great, magician.

Mrs. Floyd Conklin returned Friday evening from Chicago where she, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Smith, were guests Thursday at the Don McNeil Breakfast Club. Mrs. Smith was one of the guests invited to talk over the radio at this program and her Youngsville friends heard her voice clearly over the air as she spoke concerning the "Biggest Little Town on the Map." She also read a letter at Mr. McNeil's request.

Mrs. Smith is now continuing her journey to California. She expects to spend a night in Omaha, Neb., and in Salt Lake City, Utah. While in Chicago, Mrs. Conklin and Mrs. Smith were guests of the "Welcome Traveler" radio program and the Ice Follies in the evening.

The Evening Group of WSCS held its January meeting in the Methodist church, with the message given by the pastor, Rev. Harold Lindquist. There was also special music at this service, and at the service on Monday evening, the opening night of the Week of Prayer, with the service in Saron Lutheran church, Rev. E. W. Carlson brought the meditation.

Senior Scouts Represented At Gathering

Three Warren county Senior Scouts attended the senior sectional planning committee meeting at Allegany State Park, Red House, along with Mrs. Harold G. Stahl, of Warren, from January 7 to 9. The Warren county Scouts serving as representatives were Shirley Stover, of Sheffield, and Shirley Hubert, of Youngsville. Jane Rogers, of Warren, attended the meeting as one of two elected advisers from last year's committee.

There were nine communities of Region III, Section I, present. Plans for the second sectional senior campfire to be held May 13, 14, and 15 at the Warren county Girl Scout camp, Burdall Edey, were made.

The theme for this second campfire will be "Girl-Boy Relationships," with huddle groups on various phases of Scouting. Miss Nancy Bennett, of Meadville, was elected to serve as chairman. Each community has been assigned a definite responsibility again this year with the Warren County Council Senior Scouts again planning menus, purchasing food and providing the cooks.

Adults acting as advisors for this second campfire are: Miss Carol Smith, of Erie, for the professional staff, and Miss Marquette Smith, of Emporium, for the volunteers.

The delegates from the nine communities and their adult advisors enjoyed exploring the park grounds. M. H. Deardorff, of Warren, who, with his wife, was also visiting at the park, arranged for the group to see the Indian celebration of the New Year, including two traditional dances.

Maurice Gets Along

BY ROBERT SIDNEY BOWEN

Chapter 11

WELL, I had pulled it out of the thin air and tossed it right into their faces. So I sat waiting for things to happen, and trying to catch their expressions all at the same time. I caught two of them. Barone's and Parkus'. Both blanks. I couldn't catch Goldielocks', though. She had buried her face in her hands and was weeping some more.

"Herbert Varney?" Barone said, pronouncing the name slowly, to see how it felt coming off his tongue. "Who is this Herbert Varney?"

"I don't know," I said. "Ever know anybody by that name? Say in France during the war?"

"No. No one by that name. But in the Underground one did not use his correct name. No. I did not know a Herbert Varney."

I looked quickly at Parkus and hoisted an inquiring brow. He shook his head along with his grin.

"Not that I recall, Barnes," he said. "Nobody in my outfit by that name."

And then I looked at weeping Goldielocks. "How about you, Goldielocks?" I caught myself in time. "Do you, or did you, know anybody by that name?"

"No, the name I do not know," she said. "At least I do not think so. But my head! There is such an ache. You must pardon me. I have been so very much. I."

She let the rest go. Rather, she finished it with a little feeble movement of one hand. Henri Barone was on his feet in an instant.

"But of course, Zaza!" he soothed her. "You must rest. You must have sleep. It has been such a terrible blow. We will go to once. I will phone you later. Perhaps then you will be feeling a little better, eh?"

"Perhaps, Henri." She smiled wanly, and gave him her hand. "She went on talking, but I heard hardly any of it. I was too fascinated by the very smooth and easy performance that was being acted out right before my eyes. I mean, she had linked an arm with Barone, and one with Parkus, and was guiding them toward the apartment door. Yes, girl! Right to the door and through it, just like I was some other guy in another state. Even when it came to me that Barone was going out the door owing me the other thousand for having found Cardeur dead or alive, the realization didn't seem important at all!

"What was the idea of that?" I demanded.

"Of that?" she echoed, with a little quizzical smile.

"The headache gag, and giving them the rush," I said evenly. Then quickly, "Did you, or did you not?"

She sat up straight, eyes wide.

"My sweet Gerry, I think you try to break my heart, no?" she said.

"The idea hadn't occurred to me," I grunted, and had the faint feeling that I was floundering.

"What do you mean?"

"All these nice things," she said. "Maurice could not give these to me. So you think Maurice is most jealous of René? He is so jealous that he decides he will kill René. So I find out that Maurice has killed René and that makes me very, very mad! I must punish Maurice because now René cannot pay for all these nice things? He is dead. So I punish Maurice, no? I kill him, too? It is the way you think, yes?"

"Exactly the way I think, Goldielocks," I grinned at her. "But I don't think I'll call the cops yet. A couple of other things I want to find out first. One of them, the Mr. X in this thing."

"The Mr. X, Gerry?"

"Herbert Varney," I said, and watched her.

She frowned, had some of her drink, and frowned some more.

"Who is this Herbert Varney?" she asked, still holding the trown, a perplexed one. "Did René tell you about him, when you talked at that so very awful party?"

I grinned, and couldn't stop it from working up into a chuckle.

"It is funny, what I ask?" she wanted to know right away.

"Not much," I said with a shake of my head.

"TELL me this, what did Gordon Parrish ever do to you?"

"I will tell you," she said, and "There was no baby doll in that voice. I will tell you just one of many things, so that you will understand. It was in Paris. The second year of the war. Parrish was the... what you call, leader of our unit. He was in love with me, but I do not love him at all. He try so very hard, but always I refuse. I laugh at him. The others see me laugh. Parrish... he is a little like René. He cannot stand the laughter. Because of his face, I think. So he try to have me fall into the hands of the Nazi Gestapo in Paris. Maurice finds out. It is Maurice who saves my life."

"Just a pal," I said. "But he must have known about you and Cardeur, didn't he? And maybe you and René, too?"

"But yes," she said simply. "We were all of the Underground. There were no secrets such as that."

"Look, Goldielocks!" I said, tight-lipped. "Maybe you folks in the Underground think nothing at all about a couple of killings. Over here we look at it different. We don't like killings at all. Not even nice ones. Suppose you think hard and come up with what's behind it, eh?"

If it registered it certainly didn't show in her face.

"Perhaps if you give me the explanation, Gerry?" she murmured.

As a starter for that I held up my right hand with the thumb and second finger folded.

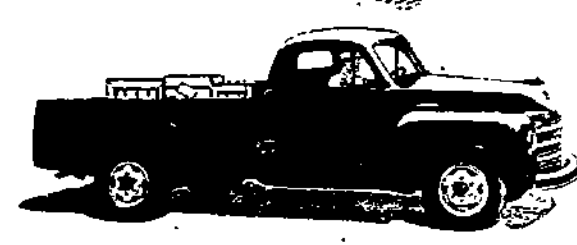

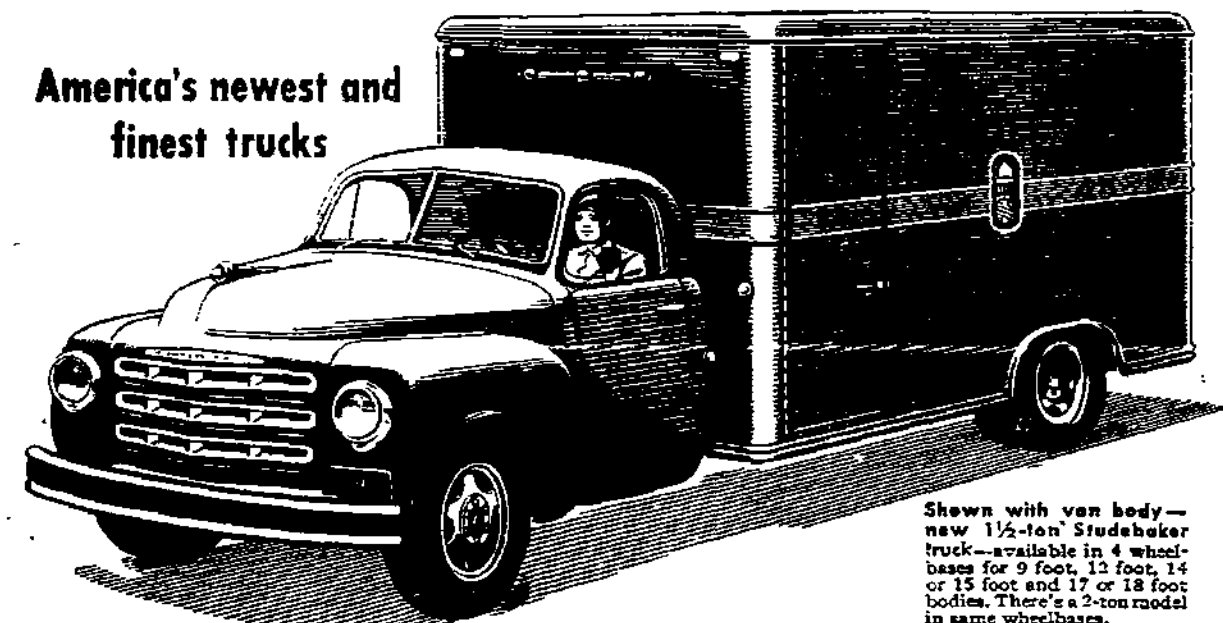

"DeFoe and Cardeur, both dead," I said. "They didn't kill each other. Somebody else. Who? I have an idea. Why? I haven't that idea, yet! Over you? Maybe. What do you think?"

"You are a fool! A fool, do you not see?"

"Okay, I'm sorry, Goldielocks," I said. "After all, it was just a thought. Heels like me get lots of thoughts. You'd be surprised at the kinds. Sorry about Cardeur, too. Now you go get that rest. Some night I'll buy you a dinner, and try to get you to forgive. Bye, baby."

But when I was down on the sidewalk, and debating my next move, a question suddenly occurred to me. I mean, just why had she given Barone and Parkus the rush, and kept me there? It certainly hadn't been for the reason you'd be inclined to think, that was a cinch!
